Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Programmes are organized by Salwan Education Trust. It mandates 49 hours of training in a year for each teacher as per the need of the teacher, based on the subject or other attributes. CPD workshops are conducted twice a month where each teacher is allotted 45 mins. of presentation for which they meticulously do profound research work upon data analysis, incorporates modern pedagogies used in world education and present the same to the fellow teachers, on the topics ranging from Storytelling, report writing to Artificial Intelligence and Critical Thinking.

Apart from this department wise Workshops of faculty members from each branch of the trust is organized twice annually to enhance core competencies of the teachers. The training is imparted by the experts in the field that advocates the solutions based on the teacher’s own classroom realities. The programmes are specifically designed to be used in an everyday environment.
