The school inducted its Student Council 2017-18 comprising of 40 members in an "Investiture Ceremony" held on Thursday, 18th May, 2017. The aim was to propel the students to dream the sublime and higher to contribute their efforts in Nation Building through effective leadership skills . The ceremony was graced by Dr. Munshi Md. Younus, Proctor & Assistant Professor, Zakir Husain College, University of Delhi.

Speaking on this occasion , the Principal Mrs. Sonia A. Verma motivated and encouraged the students to imbibe in them sense of responsibility & pride in them with a clear perspective , vision and passion to carry forward the rich legacy of Salwan Schools. She instilled in them that the skills they learn by being the members of student council would aspire them to be future CEOs, Entrepreneurs, Professionals and IAS Officers.

On this momentous occasion, students put up scintillating music and dance performances. The members of Student Council were adorned with badges and ties in a formal ceremonial manner by the Chief Guest, Principal and Director. This was followed by the entire council pledging to uphold the vision and spirit envisaged by Salwan Institutions and carry out duties with integrity, faith and excellence by becoming the agents of change. Standing with their heads held high, walking shoulder to shoulder, striving towards perfection, the student representatives, vowed to Preserve, Protect and Glorify the honour of the school.

The outgoing Head Boy of the school, Yash Prakash Yadav passed the mantle of responsibilities and power to the newly elected Head boy, wishing him and his entire senate, success and victory in all their endeavors. With new responsibilities placed on their shoulders, newly appointed Head Boy- Aditya Rawat and Head Girl- Arukshita Tyagi assured all the students of their commitment to serve with a difference.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Guest highlighted the efforts and opportunities provided by the school to the students to exhibit their talent and the contribution of the school in instilling leadership qualities among students.

Glory of the school was shared by the Salwanian song and it was a splendid moment to see all the students singing in chorus with soulful rendition.

Vote of Thanks was given by the school Director Retd. Col. Ashok Kaul who applauded the efforts of students for putting up a fabulous show. He congratulated the Students Council and encourage them to learn the ways and means to manage and lead from the front.
